CIRCULAR LETTER

Dear brethren, the children of the Most High God:

It has fallen to my poor, unworthy lot to address you in the form of a Circular Letter. I hope that the Lord will direct my poor mind to write something that will be a comfort to God's people, and may He bless me to say those things which become sound doctrine, and that those things may be said in the meekness of spirit. My mind is on the duties of the children of God, so I will call your attention to a portion of scripture recorded in Ezekiel 18:2: "The fathers have eaten sour grapes and the children's teeth are set on edge."

My dear brethren, it seems to me that these children were talking about the fathers in Israel; that if they take sour grapes that the children's teeth are set on edge. I understand that means that if the fathers do wrong, it leads the children to do wrong also. It becomes us to lay aside every weight of sin that so easily besets us, ever looking unto Jesus who is the author and finisher of our faith.

Dear brethren, it is our duty, if the Lord will bless us, to let our light so shine before men that they may see our good works and glorify God who is in heaven. It is our duty to refrain from every appearance of evil. If ye live after the flesh ye shall die. but if ye through the Spirit do mortify the deeds of the body, ye shall live.

In Matthew 21:13 Jesus said, "Unto them it is written, My house shall be called the house of prayer, but ye have made it a den of thieves." I understand He was talking to His children, telling them they had made His house a den of thieves by the sins they had committed. So we have been doing many things that the Lord has told us not to do all the way along the line. We should live soberly, righteously and godly in the presence of the world, looking for that blessed hope and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Savior Jesus Christ who gave Himself for us and has redeemed us from all sin and purified unto Himself a peculiar people, zealous of good works. These things speak and exhort and rebuke with all authority. Let no man despise thee. Stand firm and in all things give thanks to our great Redeemer. We should be slow to wrath, swift to hear. We find in the scriptures every way of a man is right in his own eyes, but the Lord pondereth the heart. We are waiting in hope of the resurrection when Christ shall come and say to them that are on His right hand: "Come ye that are blessed, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world."

It was such a delight to her children, when in November 1955, she came, giving evidence of believing that salvation was a gift of God and not by any merits of man. She was ever mindful that the Primitive Baptist was "the living way."

All of her life she was faithful to visit the sick and do what she could for them. Truly it can be said of Sister Maggie:

To this union were born one son and four daughter: Darrell Dotson, Mrs. Doris Jean Varney, Mrs. Della Mae Rowe, Mrs. Darlene Gail Newsome, and Diana Dotson. He had one daughter and one son by his previous marriage: the late Andrew Dotson and Mrs. Mildred VanDyke. He also had seven grandchildren, four brothers and

He has been a member of the Primitive Baptist Church of Dry Fork since May 10, 1964., and has lived a good Christian life until his death. He was baptized by Teddy Ball and Eli Estep.

He was a faithful husband and a devoted father to his children. We all shall miss him very much. He will live forever in the hearts of those who loved him.

“But for the touch of a vanished hand
And the sound of a voice that is still.”

Written by his loving wife Ennis Dotson and children.

IN MEMORY OF BALLARD BALL

Who passed away July 25, 1927.
He was a flower sent from heaven,
Bloomed on earth a little while,
Now he's to sleep and slumber,
And we miss his loving smile.

No one knows the lonesome heartaches,
Unless they have the trial,
We'll try to hide our tears and sorrow,
Someday reclaim that long lost smile.

Sleep on, Darling, we know we'll met you,
And be parted never more,
God has promised in that morning,
When this toilsome life is o'er.

Sadly missed by his wife Didema, and three children, Mary Ellen, Josephine and Lee Ball.

Written by request by Mary Wheeler.

J. S. SCOTT

In loving memory of our beloved Brother J. S. Scott, born Feb. 14, 1886; departed this life Dec. 21, 1966, making his stay on earth 77 years and 10 months and 7 days. He joined the Primitive Baptist Church March 10, 1953. He lived a faithful God-fearing life until death. His doors were always open to the Lord's people and his many friends.

He was united in marriage to Fanny Farley Scott. To this union were born three boys and one girl. Two children preceded him in death. He leaves to mourn his passing his beloved wife, two children, and relatives and many friends.

She has lost a loving husband, and the Church a faithful member. He is missed by all who knew him. He was always ready to lend a helping hand.

He was a true and faithful husband
With a kind and smiling face,
And a tender hand so willing,
None on earth can take his place.

He is missed by all his loved ones,
He leaves a sad and broken home,
Though his presence there is absent,
With his memory not alone.

And the thought is sweet to meet in heaven,
Only parted for a while,
When death's bars are torn asunder,
Meet again that welcome smile.

Written by request of those who love him. By Elder Frank and Mary Wheeler.

ARTICLES OF FAITH

4. We believe in the doctrine of total depravity of human nature

1. We believe in one true and living God, who is the Creator, upholder, and righteous disposer of all things; and that he is self-existent, independent, omnipotent and eternal.

2. We believe that Jesus existed in His mediatorial Person as the head and life of His body, the church from everlasting.

3. We believe the doctrine of eternal, personal and unconditional election; that the elect, or church, is and was and shall forever remain His body and fulness, and their spiritual life is hid with Christ in God.

and that recovery from that condition is wholly and exclusively by the sovereign, free and unmerited grace of God.

5. We believe the atonement made by Christ was full and complete and exclusively for the elect, or heirs of promise.

6. We believe the doctrine of God's predestination in every sense as the Bible teaches it.

7. We believe that all the elect vessels of mercy, chosen in Christ before the foundation of the world, shall be called, regenerated and sanctified by the regenerating power of God's grace, and shall ultimately enjoy heaven and immortal glory.

8. We believe that there will be a resurrection of the bodies, both of the just and the unjust, and the happiness of the righteous shall be eternal and the punishment of the wicked shall be everlasting.

9. We believe that baptism and the Lord's Supper are ordinances of Jesus Christ, and that true believers are the subjects, and the true mode of baptism is immersion, foot washing an example.

10. We believe the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments as translated under the reign of King James, are a revelation from God, inspired by the Holy Ghost, and that the New Testament is the standard of faith and the only authorized rule of practice to the church of God under gospel dispensation. We therefore consider ourselves solemnly bound by our allegiance to the King of Zion to reject, disclaim and disfellowship all modern and ancient religious institutions or societies of which we have neither precept nor example in the New Testament.

5. He shall strictly adhere to the subject and in no wise reflect of the person who spoke before so as to mak remarks on his slips, failings and imperfections, but fairly state the case and matter as nearly as he can to convey his ideas.
6. No person shall rise and speak more than three times on one subject without liberty obtained from the Association.
7. No person shall abruptly break off or absent himself from the Association without liberty obtained from it.
