SUNDAY MORNING - SEPTEMBER 7, 1975

To open Elder Elbert Hunter.

1. Elder Luther Bradley. Text: Psalms 118:22: "The Stone which the builders refused is become the head stone of the corner."

2. Elder Jimmie Moore. Text: Thessalonians 4:13: "But I would not have you to be ignorant, brethren concerning them which are asleep. . . ."

3. Elder Franklin Vires. Text: "He was led as a sheep to the slaughter. . . ."

4. Elder Teddy R. Ball (Our Moderator) closed out the Association amid much singing and rejoicing. An open door was published. Five came asking for a home with the Church. We feel we should be thankful to the Heavenly Father for the privelege of being able to meet together again.

The Clerk

CIRCULAR LETTERS

Dear Brothers and Sisters that compose of the Original Mates Creek Association:

As I try to write this circular letter, I would love to describe all glory, all honor and praise to the God of glory; Who has no beginning and no end; Who declared the end from the beginning from ancient times to things that are not yet done, saying: "My counsil will stand and I will do all my pleasure."

That this true and living God, before the earth was placed on its axis or the stars were hung in the heavens, that all His family stood complete sanctified (set apart) redeemed, regenerated and most of all glorified through His infinite wisdom and foreknowledge.

Because God looked and there were none to redeem us for we had separated ourselves from God by our sins. But God loved us with an everlasting love even when we were dead in sin. For this love He sent His only begotten son, The Lord Jesus Christ, to redeem us from that state in sin. As we read the prophesy of the writers there shall be a fountain open for the house of David and the inhabitants of Jerusalem for sin and uncleanness. And we believe the Blood of The Lord Jesus Christ was that fountain when He hung on Calvary's Cross and the soldiers rushed a spear in His side.

One writer said, "The Blood of Jesus Christ cleanses us from all sin, and without the shedding of His Blood, there is no remission of sin." So, I believe the Primitive Baptists will support me when I say, that nothing short of the Grace of The Almighty God and the shed blood of Jesus Christ, that we will sing His praise in Heaven.

Brethren, it is not my intention that this be a long letter, but I feel it needful to write to you concerning the church. I feel the church today is the same when Christ set it up. And I feel it needful that you and I honor that institution of rules and regulations and principles and doctrine of just what the Old Baptist offered when we unite with the church.

For one writer said, "Not to depart from the ancient landmark that our forefathers set." And brethren notice, that when the Old Baptist is in peace and there is no disturbance, how wonderful the Lord will bless us. But when the Old Baptist is disturbed with any new brought in, you can feel a sense of resentfulness.

So, I feel it is my duty to God and my love to you to take nothing from you that you were doing in the way of worship when I joined the Primitive Baptists. And I hope, by God's Great Mercy, that He will give me a sound mind to never bring nothing new.

So, Brethren, I close in saying, if you want to enjoy what is in the church, love one another; do for one another, and the Lord of Glory will always richly bless you.

Written by one in hope of eternal life,
Elder Michael Smith

OBITUARIES

NETTIE DAVIDSON

Nettie Davidson was born May 9, 1916 and departed this life July 29, 1975, making her stay on earth 59 years, 2 months, and 20 days. She was first married to E.A. Mullins and to this union was born six children. She later married Clarence Everett Davidson and to this union was born one daughter.

She leaves to mourn her loss six children, Thelma Dalton, Evalene Fleming, Jimmie Mullins, Garnett Robinson, Pauline Burton and Fannie Davidson. One daughter, Edna Mullins and her husband Clarence Everett Davidson preceded her in death.

She leaves also four step children, Betty Deel, Lucille Meed, Patsy Austin and Junior Davidson. One brother, Tony Smith, one sister, Jettie Hicks. Fourteen grandchildren; two great grandchildren; and five step grandchildren. She was a kind and loving mother and a friend to all who knew her. She did not belong to the Old Primitive Baptist Church, but she went regular with her daughter and son-in-law, and she believed the doctrine, salvation by the grace of God. We have seen her rejoice and the tears of joy run down her face when hearing her salvation preached. To us she is dead but to Christ she is only asleep until he comes again. So loved one sleep on, we live in hope that we will meet again on that great day when Christ shall come again to take His children home. A precious one from us is gone, a voice we loved is still, a place is vacant in our home which never can be filled.

Edith Short Hill, 63 years of age, was born August 30, 1911, in Johnson County, Kentucky. The daughter of I. D. and Malta Howe Preston, she departed this life May 25, 1975, after several months illness.

She was educated in Johnson County Schools, attended Alice Lloyd College and Pikeville College. She taught in the Johnson County Schools for thirty years before her retirement three years ago.

She was a member of the Regular Primitive Baptist Church and remained true to its teachings. She numbered her friends by her acquaintance and was an example of the finest in Christian womanhood.

She first married James L. Short, who died December 6, 1953. She later married Lloyd Hill, who survives, also her mother and father, I. D. and Malta Preston; three sisters, Betty Wallen, Leona Wallen, both of Williamsport, Ky., and Patty Schwartz of Dayton, Ohio; three brothers; Virgil Preston of Cincinnati, Ohio, Paul R. Preston of Vero Beach, Florida, and Harold L. Preston of Williamsport, Kentucky.

Funeral services were held Wednesday, May 28, 1975, at 10:00 a.m. at the Jones and Preston Funeral Home in Paintsville, Kentucky. Elders Teddy Ball, Avery Lowe, and Paul Keaton officiated and interment followed in the family cemetery at Williamsport, Kentucky.

Pallbearers included two stepsons; John D. Hill and Dallas McCarty; nephews, Kevin Wallen, David Preston, Bobby and Barry Schwartz and Wendell and Michael Wallen.

She has gone to her reward and with the poet we can say; I cannot say and I will not say that she is dead, she is just away, with a cheery smile and a wave of the hand, she has wandered into an unknown land and left us dreaming how fair its needs must be since she lingers there.

WILLIAM SMITH

It is with much sorrow we write an obituary of our dear daddy, William Smith. He was born Jan. 16, 1912 and departed from this unfriendly world September 19, 1974. He was never baptized but had requested that Elder Johnny Blackburn baptize him if he ever became able, which he did not. He also told Elder Blackburn that if he was not able to preach at his funeral just sing Amazing Grace. His father and mother, Joe and Polly Prater Smith, preceded him in death. He leaves six daughters and four sons and fourteen grandchildren and many more who loved him to mourn their loss. He had a numerous host of friends and was a veteran of World War II.

Sleep on daddy in your peaceful sleep. No more pain or suffering from which to weep. By the Grace of God we hope to meet you, where the family will be complete.

WALTER RUNYON

With tears in my eyes and an ache in my heart I will try to write the obituary of my beloved husband, Walter Runyon.

He was born January 5, 1915 at Huddy, Ky. the son of Minnie Charles and the late Fred Runyon. He was married to Eunice Wheeler Runyon. He also leaves one daughter, Joyce Gaye Slater and one granddaughter, Stephanie Michelle Slater of Columbia, S.C. Two sisters, Tilda Reedy of Huddy, Ky. and Eloise Bowersock of West Sate, Ohio and one brother Edward Runyon of Huddy, Ky. He was preceded in death by his father one brother and one sister.

He became a member of Old Pond Primitive Church on April 30, 1966 and was an Elder for several years before he left this old world. He was one of the kindest, gentlest and most loving husband, father and grandfather. He never grew tired of talking about the goodness and mercy of our loving Saviour. He was a firm believer in Salvation by the Grace of God, and did not hesitate to declare and defend the great doctrine of Jesus Christ.

He was in ill health many years before his death and is sadly missed by all who knew him. The churches and association that he so gladly and joyfully attended, giving his service to each without one thought of himself, asking only to be blessed to praise the God he so strongly believed in.

His family lifts up their heads, though our burdens be great and our grief so hard to bear, ever looking forward to the blessed promise given by Christ that we'll meet again beyond the river of death. Sleep on, my darling, your sleep and our grief is not without hope.

TOY ELLEN (VANDYKE) CHILDRESS

Toy Ellen (Vandyke) Childress departed this life February 12, 1975, in the Grundy Hospital, after a long illness.

She was born February 1, 1905 on Dry Fork, the daughter of the late George W. and America (Phillips) Vandyke. She was married to Jesse L. Childress of Little Prater on March 21, 1923 at 11:30 a.m., by the late J.J. Childress. Sadie Reedy and Evans Edwards witnessed this Holy Matrimony. To this union were born fourteen children, eight sons and six daughters.

She is survived by her loving husband, Jesse, daughters, Lena Dahanyos, Lorain, Ohio; Glenna Boyd, Rt. 2, Grundy, Va.; Shirley Mullins, Royal City, Va.; Mary Kerr, Columbus, Ohio; and Linda Bowman, Rt. 2, Grundy, Va., and sons, Cecil C., Vermilion, Ohio; Kenneth, Russellville, Ark.; Ted, Lorain, Ohio; Thomas J., Fairfield, Calif.; Roger, Rt. 2, Grundy, Va.; Virgil (Bo), Roanoke, Va.; and Billy J. Childress, U.S. Army in Turkey. Also surviving are one sister, Laura McGlothlin, Rising Sun, Md.; one brother, Bill Vandyke, North Tazewell, Va.; thirty-six grandchildren; and two great grandchildren. Preceding her in death was one daughter, Carol Sue, and one son, Franklin P. Childress.

On the fourth Sunday in August, 1936 she was baptized by Elder A.R. Singelton, a minister of the Primitive Baptist Church, of the Bill Sutherland Faction. She was a charter member of the Dry Fork Primitive Baptist Church, which was organized in 1961. Her faith never faltered, the church being a part of her life she treasured most. Even though at times she didn't feel well enough to attend the services, if she could sit up at all, she made a point of being there.

The road of life led to many hardships and struggles, but being the christian wife and mother that she was, she overcame each burden with added strength and preceded on the journey of life. Through the 70 years and 11 days of her life, she met many people, who from that time on were considered dear friends to her, that loved her and were loved by her. This shining star has left this old dark world, but adds a brightness around God's Great Throne forevermore.

Dear mother we miss you. Your loving husband, Jesse, and children.

OLLIE JUSTICE, WIFE OF T.F. JUSTICE

Loving thoughts and solemn tears have marked the passing months. Tears may dry and fade away but in our hearts you will always stay. Memories are treasures that no one can steal. Death is a heartache that no one can heal. In our hearts your memories linger sweetly tender, fond and true. There is not a day dear mother, that we do not think of you. You have passed beyond the river and God let you come to a saving knowledge of His dear son whom you served here with us for several years while you remained with us. We hear your voice no more you are resting. Sweetly resting over on the other shore. A better wife and mother no one will ever know. Sadly missed by your children.

SARAH E. JUSTICE

With great sadness I write the obituary of my dear mother, Sarah E. Justice. She was born April 10, 1885, daughter of Alfred and Martha Justice; deceased March 25, 1975, at the age of 89 years, 11 months and 16 days.

TENNESSEE C. HUNT

It is a sad job to write the obituary of my mother Tennessee Hunt. She was born into this old world of trouble in June 17th, 1893 and passed away October 11, 1974. Making her stay here 81 years. Being an only child here living, we were very close to each other. She was the wife of Frank Hunt who preceded her in death over 25 years ago. Mother belonged to the Primitive Baptist Church ever since I was a child. She has one living brother out of all her family, Anthony Coleman at Red Creek near Shalbiana, Ky. Mom was sadly missed by about all who knew her.

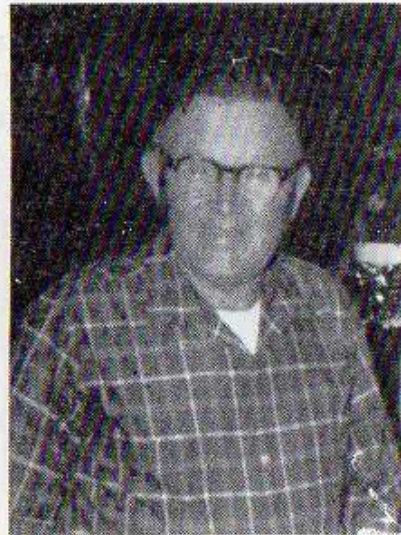

She prayed many prayers through out her life and surely believed in Christ. Home is not complete without mother, but some day, if it being God's will, we can have a complete home again.

MRS. MARTHA JUSTICE

It is with deep sadness and an aching heart that I attempt to write the obituary of my dear and loving mother-in-law, Mrs. Martha Justice. She was born July 17, 1914 and departed this life December 31, 1974, making her stay on earth 60 years, 5 months and 14 days. She was born at Fishtrap, Ky., and was the daughter of the late John and Laura Ramey. She was married to Carl Justice and to this union was born eight children, six boys and two girls. She also leaves 17 grandchildren and 2 great grandchildren.

Three sisters and three brothers, one brother preceded her in death.

She was a member of the Primitive Baptist Church for thirty some years and lived a faithful member to her death. She was a loving wife and mother and the best mother-in-law in the whole world. Sleep on Mom, we all love you and will never forget you. I know you're gone to be with Jesus and maybe we'll meet again when he comes to call his children home. Rest in peace.

ANDY DOTSON

It's with a sad an aching heart, we try to write the obituary of our dear loving father, Andy Dotson born October 18, 1889 and departed this life December 26, 1974.

He joined the Primitive Baptists several years ago and lived a faithful member until his death. He was a strong believer in salvation by the Grace of God. He was a true believer in Primitive Baptists. I have heard him say many times if it ever comes a time that old Baptists didn't have a preacher to hold church at the church house he would go down on church time and sit on the steps for a while and come back home.

He was one that couldn't be blown around by winds of doctrines.

His wife, Viola, and two sons preceded him in death. He leaves to mourn his loss four sons and one daughter, several grandchildren and great grandchildren and a host of friends. We feel our loss is his heavenly gain.

JOHN SLONE

It is with a sad and aching heart that I undertake to write the obituary of my loving husband, John Slone. He was the son of Harrison Slone and Mary Smith Slone. He was born December 22, 1901 and deceased this life December 9, 1974. During this time he lived a full and happy life. John was a believer in the old Primitive Baptist Church. He was willing to do his part in any way to help the church. He welcomed all church members into his home. He is survived by his loving wife, Zettie Slone, two daughters, Carrie Mahan of Red Jacket, W.Va. and Elsie Slone of Freeburn, Ky. He was also the step father of four stepchildren. Sadie Williams of Crestwood, Ill., Grace May of Hights, Mich., Bob Leedy of Lavonia, Mich., and Condrell Slone at home. He was the grandfather of fourteen grandchildren and twelve great grandchildren. He was the brother of four sisters and one brother. He also left a host of friends and relatives to mourn his loss. We feel our loss is heaven's gain and his eternal life. He has fallen asleep in our Lord Jesus Christ. May the Lord bless and keep him.

In a little mountain grave yard,
Sleeping in the grave so low
A smiling face my heart has cherished
God called and he had to go.

When the stars shine like silver,
And the sun sinks in the west
I long to hold him to my bosom
Good bye darling, God loved you best.

A beautiful flower he was, while he bloomed. Written by his loving wife.

BETTY CHAPMAN

With a sad and aching heart I will try to write the obituary of my dear sweet and precious mother, Betty Chapman, who departed this life October 5, 1974. Mother was better known by "Aunt Betty" and was loved by all who knew her.

She was preceded in death by her husband and 3 sons. Her husband was the late Elder Thomas J. Chapman. She leaves seven children to mourn her loss. Two sons, Fred Chapman and Jonah Chapman. Five daughters, Bertha Schmitt, Della Vance, Ruth Allen, Sarah Dotson and Mona Ball with whom she made her home with the past 22 years.

Mother was a member of the Big Creek Primitive Baptist Church and was a good and faithful member as long as her health permitted her to go. Mother was shut in for about ten years. She never had the privilege of going but she often spoke of the church and all of the good people she loved. Mother was the sweetest mother any children could hope for.

Mother, you are so sadly missed by your children and grandchildren and a host of friends and relatives and we feel our loss is heaven's gain. Goodbye dear mother, I hope to meet you in a better world some sweet day. Written by your lonely and broken hearted daughter.

Mona Ball.

BETTIE HONAKER VARNEY

Bettie Honaker Varney passed away Saturday, January 25, 1975 at 9:10 p.m. at the Methodist Hospital. She was born July 30, 1890 making her stay on earth 84 years, 5 months, and 25 days. She was the daughter of John and Lavinna Caroline Honaker. She was married to Levi Varney who preceded her in death. Born to this union were nine children, three which preceded her in death. Six surviving children are Rodolph Varney of Huntingdon, Indiana, Hermie Varney of Zebulon, Ky., John Varney of Meta, Ky., and Zella May, Annie Chapman, and Octavia Chapman all of Kimper, Ky.

And two sisters, one brother Diademie Miller, of Swords Creek, Va., Octavia Justice of Stone, Ky. She had thirty-one grandchildren, forty-nine great grandchildren and two great great grandchildren. Even though she wasn't united with a church in this life she was faithful to attend church as long as she was able to go. She was a strong believer in our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. Our loss is her eternal gain. She left behind a host of many friends.

We the children of Bettie Varney greatly appreciate the love and kindness of her friends in the time of need. I feel our loss is her eternal gain. By the grace of God. We shall meet her again.

ELEN KEESEE

In memory of my mother, Elen Keesee, I will attempt to write her obituary. She was born September 22, 1894, the daughter of James P. and Margaret Maynard Lowe at Heenon, Kentucky. Deceased on July 5, 1975 making her stay on earth 80 years, 9 months and 14 days.

She was married to my father, Dallas Keesee, who survives, March 30, 1912 making this marriage last 63 wonderful years of love and care for each other.

To this union was born seven children, four sons and three daughters.

Lenora Todd of Mt. Orab, Ohio, Dorothy Mae Sullivan of Ransom, Kentucky, Mary E. Cochrane of Huntingdon, West Virginia, Wayne M. Keesee of Mt. Orab, Ohio, James F. Keesee of Ransom, Kentucky and Bobby Keesee of Cincinnati, Ohio. One son, K.L. Keesee preceded her in death. She also was the grandmother of fifteen children and the great grandmother of fourteen.

Funeral services were held Wednesday, July 9 at 11:00 a.m. at the United Methodist Church of Belfry, Kentucky. Elders Michael Smith, Fred Varney and Teddy Ball officiated. Internment followed at the Mountain View Memory Garden, Huddy, Kentucky, under the direction of Rogers Funeral Home of Belfry, Kentucky.

Mother joined the Primitive Baptist Church 46 years ago and was a faithful member until death. I am very thankful God granted her 80 years here on earth with her family, relatives and many friends. I believe that she lived her appointed time here on earth and is now resting where time has no meaning, the dust has returned to the earth as it was and the spirit has returned to God who gave it. Our loss is her eternal gain.

"Stirring Memories"

In the quietness of night, when the leaves are silvered with dew,
I catch a glimmer of her smile in a mist-shrouded view;
And memories begin stirring fragile and quiet,
Like tendrils of mist drifting on a mid-summer night.
Oh, we miss her so very much; her bright warm smile and kind gentle touch.

I hope to meet that dear sister of mine and sing songs of joy upon the hills of Zion.

ARTHUR HENRY BLACKBURN

It is with a sad and aching heart
I write the obituary of my foster father, Arthus H. Blackburn.

He was born January 6, 1893 and departed this life October 10, 1973 making his stay here on earth 80 years, 10 months and 4 days. He was the son of the late Mitch and Katherine (Smith) Blackburn.

He was married to Pricy (Ball)
Blackburn, who survives. He left one sister, Stella Wolford of Pinsonfork, Ky. and one brother, Grant Blackburn of Pinsonfork, Ky. He was a member of UMWA Local 5737.

He united with the Little Hope
Primitive Baptist Church June, 1953, where he was a faithful member.

He served for a number of years as a deacon.

He is sadly missed by his family, friends, sister and brothers of the church. No words could ever describe the many things he did for us. I feel he is now resting peacefully from all suffering and sorrow. Thou sadly missed, his memory will always remain with me. He was truly a precious father to me. "The Lord giveth and the Lord taketh, Blessed be the name of the Lord."

BRADLEY SCOTT

On November 18, 1974, it was the Lord's will to call from our midst Brother Bradley Scott of Hardy, Kentucky, making his stay here on earth 66 years, 9 months, and 18 days.

Born January 25, 1908 at Ransom, Ky., he was the son of the late Alex and America Scott. On April 22, 1929 he was united in marriage to Nancy (Coleman) Scott who survives, and to this union were born six children: four sons, Sterl Scott of Williamson, Dave and Johnny Scott of Cincinnati, Ohio and Burland Scott who preceded him in death; two daughters, Betty Jo Justice of Ransom Kentucky and Bobby Jean Smith of Point Pleasant, West Virginia. Other survivors are two brothers, Bert Scott and Doc Scott, and two sisters, Dora Smith and Harriet Hager. Also surviving are three half brothers and four half sisters. Four brothers and four sisters preceded him in death.

On July 26, 1964 Bro. Bradley was buried in baptism by Elder Hibbard Thacker and Bro. Ransom Scott. He was a member of the Old Pond Primitive Baptist Church and served it faithfully until sickness confined him to his home. Memories surround us when we hear the song "Amazing Grace" 'how sweet the sound,' which he loved so dearly to hear and was a comfort to his heart.

And on that resurrection morning, when God splits those eastern skies and declares that Time shall be no more, I feel Bro. Bradley had an eternal hope that he would enjoy the scenes of Heaven, and that he would meet his Saviour in the midway air to live with him forever in the beautiful mansion above, eternally in Heaven.

Sadly missed by his wife, children, family and friends.

CLAUDE STILTNER

Claude Stiltner was born August 11, 1901, the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Andy Stiltner. He departed this life August 16, 1975. He was married to Mae Stiltner who preceded him in death. He also had one son who preceded him in death, leaving three sons, four daughters, 21 grandchildren, several half brothers and sisters, and his present wife, Sylvia Lamb Stiltner.

He joined the Primitive Baptists in 1938 and was ordained a deacon the same year. He was a faithful member until death.

His request was that Elders Johnny Blackburn, Elmer Brown and Teddy Ball preach his funeral. We feel our loss is his gain.

CONSTITUTION

1. This Association shall be called the Original Mates Creek District Primitive Baptist Association.

2. The Association shall be composed of members chosen by the different churches in our union and duly sent to represent them in the Association, who shall be members whom they judge best qualified for that purpose, and producing letters from their respective churches certifying their appointment, shall be entitled to seats.

3. In the letters from the different churches shall be expressed their membership in full fellowship, those baptized, received by letter, dismissed by letter, excluded and deceased since the last Association.

4. The members thus chosen and convened shall have no power to lord it over God's heritage nor shall they have any clerical powers over the churches, nor shall they infringe on any of the internal rights of any church in this union.

5. The Association when convened, shall be governed by a regular and proper decorum.

6. The Association shall have a Moderator, Assistant Moderator, Clerk, Assistant Clerk, who shall be chosen by the suffrage of the messengers present, and that by secret ballot.

7. Newly constituted churches may be admitted into the union who shall petition by letter and messenger, and (if found upon examination to be orthodox and orderly), shall be received by the Association, and manifested by the Moderator giving the right hand of fellowship.

8. Every church in the union shall be entitled to a representation in the Association.

9. Every query presented by any church to the Association, being first debated in their own church, shall be taken up by the Association.

10. Every motion made and seconded shall come under the consideration of the Association, except it shall be withdrawn by the member who made it.

11. The Association shall endeavor to furnish the churches with Minutes of the Association, the best way and method for effecting that purpose shall be at the discretion of future Associations.

12. We think it absolutely necessary that we should have an Association fund for defraying the expenses of the same, for the raising and supporting of which we think it the duty of each church in the union to contribute such sums voluntarily as they think proper, and send it by the hands of their messengers to the Association, and those monies thus contributed by the churches and received by the Association shall be deposited in the hands of the Treasurer, who shall be accountable to the Association for all monies received by him, and pay out of the same according to the Association.

13. There shall be an Association book kept, wherein the proceedings of every Association shall be regularly recorded by the Secretary chosen for that purpose, who shall receive compensation for his trouble.

14. The Minutes of the Association shall be read and corrected, if need be, and signed by the Moderator and Clerk before the Association arises.

15. Amendments to this plan or form of government may be made at any time by majority of the union when they deem it necessary.

16. The Association shall have power: (1) To provide for the general union of the churches. (2) To preserve inviolably a chain of communication among the churches. (3) To give the churches necessary advice in matters of church difficulty. (4) To inquire into the cause why the churches fail to represent themselves at any time in the Association. (5) To appropriate those monies by the churches contributed for an Association fund to any purpose they may think proper. (6) To appoint any member or members by and with their consent to transact any business they may see necessary. (7) The Association shall have power to withdraw from any church in this union which shall violate the rules of this Association, or deviate from the orthodox principles of religion. (8) To admit any orderly minister of our faith and order to a seat in the Association. (9) The Association shall have power to adjourn themselves to any time or place they may think most convenient to the churches of the Association.

17. We welcome any and all orderly and peace loving Primitive Baptist to visit with us.

ARTICLES OF FAITH

1. We believe in one true and living God, who is the Creator, upholder, and righteous disposer of all things; and that He is self-existent, independent, omnipotent and eternal.

2. We believe that Jesus existed in His mediatorial Person as the head and life of His body, the church from everlasting.

3. We believe the doctrine of eternal, personal and unconditional election; that the elect, or church, is and was and shall forever remain His body and fulness, and their spiritual life is hid with Christ in God.

4. We believe in the doctrine of total depravity of human nature and that recovery from that condition is wholly and exclusively by the sovereign, free and unmerited grace of God.

5. We believe the atonement made by Christ was full and complete and exclusively for the elect, or heirs of promise.

6. We believe the doctrine of God's predestination in every sense as the Bible teaches it.

7. We believe that all the elect vessels of mercy, chosen in Christ before the foundation of the world, shall be called, regenerated and sanctified by the regenerating power of God's grace, and shall ultimately enjoy heaven and immortal glory.

8. We believe that there will be a resurrection of the bodies, both of the just and the unjust, and the happiness of the righteous shall be eternal and the punishment of the wicked shall be everlasting.

9. We believe that baptism and the Lord's Supper are ordinances of Jesus Christ, and that true believers are the subjects, and the true mode of baptism is immersion, foot washing an example.

10. We believe the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments as translated under the reign of King James, are a revelation from God, inspired by the Holy Ghost, and that the New Testament is the standard of faith and the only authorized rule of practice to the church of God under gospel dispensation. We therefore consider ourselves solemnly bound by our allegiance to the King of Zion to reject, disclaim and disfellowship all modern and ancient religious institutions or societies of which we have neither precept nor example in the New Testament.

RULES OF DECORUM

1. The Association shall be opened and closed by prayer.
2. A Moderator and Clerk shall be chosen by the suffrage of the members present.
3. Only one member shall speak at a time, who shall rise from his seat and address the Moderator when he is about to speak.
4. The person thus speaking shall not be interrupted by any except the Moderator until he is done speaking.
5. He shall strictly adhere to the subject and in no wise reflect of the person who spoke before so as to make remarks on his slips, failings and imperfections, but fairly state the case and matter as he can to convey his ideas.
6. No person shall rise and speak more than three times on one subject without liberty obtained from the Association.
7. No person shall abruptly break off or absent himself from the Association without liberty obtained from it.
8. No member of the Association shall have liberty of laughing during the sitting of the Association, nor whispering in time of public speech.
9. No member of the Association shall address another in any other term or appellation but the title of "Brother."
10. The Moderator shall not interrupt any member in a speech or prohibit him from speaking until he gives his light on the subject, except they break the Rules of Decorum.
11. Names of the several members of the Association shall be enrolled by the Clerk and called over as many times as the Association may require.
12. The Moderator shall be entitled to the same privilege of speech as another member, provided the chair be filled, and he shall have no vote except the Association be equally divided. In that event he shall give the casting vote.
13. Any member who shall wilfully or knowingly break any of these rules shall be reprovved by the Association as they think proper.
