Circular Letter

In being chosen to write the Circular Letter for the One Hundred Sixty-ninth Annual Mates Creek District Regular Primitive Baptist Association (2022), I am looking to the "GREAT I AM" for guidance as I attempt to pen down a few thoughts concerning the peace and joy in Zion, (the Church).

(Matthew 16:18) "And I say also unto thee, That thou art Peter, and upon this rock I will build my Church; and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it". The Rock being Jesus Christ.

The Church has been through many storms and persecutions throughout her existence. Once again, she has come through her most recent storm by the Grace of God. The pandemic threatened the life, health, and well-being of our families, loved ones, and brothers and sisters in Christ. We pray for those who suffered loss of loved ones as a result, and those who are still healing and suffering from it.

By the rich, reigning mercy and grace of God, we are blessed to be able to gather together once more: "HAPPY TIME LONG WAITED FOR!"

The Lord knows what we stand in need of; Our prayer is that the Savior will visit Thy plantation, grant us Lord a gracious rain, lift us up and revive us! For He surely knows "Exactly what we need"! He has made us to sit together in heavenly places in Christ Jesus the Lord. These heavenly places are found in the Church of the Almighty King. When it pleases Him to send down a blessing from above and lift us above the cares of this world, this surely is a heavenly place.

He gave us the keys to the Kingdom of Heaven, and told us to dress and keep it. The adversary (the Devil) seeks to disturb the peace and joy we receive. We must work diligently to keep it as the adversary is seated in the pews.

Satan is continually going about causing confusion; he is the author of it. He preys on the weak, but in our weakness God sends reinforcements. When the troubles come to our homes and in our Church, there is only one place to go: That is down on our knees, praying "It's Me Again Lord". For He is the problem solver, He has all the answers: "The Lord will Provide."

I am thankful and blessed to be counted among the Primitive Baptist people. I believe that God has revealed to us the truth as it is in Christ Jesus the Lord; that He sends down his gospel by his spirit and blesses his called servants to come boldly to the Throne of Grace and preach the whole counsel of God; for there is a remnant according to the election of Grace; that we are blessed to hear the "Royal Proclamation"!; that "Jesus Reigns"! In hearing and feeding on this sweet Gospel of Salvation by the Grace of God, we are blessed to proclaim: surely "How Great Thou Art!"

He is coming again on the same cloud of Glory that He went away on, to get the purchased possession of His blood. As the song says "Had it not been for a man called Jesus, then forever our souls would be lost". The Church is his Bride, the Lamb's wife. And we will meet King Jesus in the air. "What a Day That Will Be!"

In closing , as in the beginning of this letter, I refer to Matthew 16:18: His Church Kingdom will be here when He returns. There will be someone declaring God's doctrine "Salvation By the Grace of God". Until that day we will be blessed to continue to sing "COME THOU LONG EXPECTED JESUS"!!!

I love you in Christ.

Your humble servant: Elder Robert Worrix, Jr. (Robbie)

CONSTITUTION

1. This Association shall be called the Original Mates Creek District Regular Primitive Baptist Association.
2. The Association shall be composed of members chosen by the different churches in our union, and duly sent to represent them in the Association, who shall be members whom they judge best qualified for that purpose, and producing letters from their respective churches certifying their appointment, shall be entitled to seats.
3. In the letters from the different churches shall be expressed their membership in full fellowship, those baptized, received by letter, dismissed by letter, excluded and deceased since the last Association.
4. The members thus chosen and convened shall have no power to lord it over God's heritage, nor shall they have any clerical powers over the churches, nor shall they infringe on any of the internal rights of any church in this union.
5. The Association when convened shall be governed by a regular and proper Decorum.
6. The Association shall have a Moderator, Assistant Moderator, Clerk and Assistant Clerk, who shall be chosen by the suffrage of the messengers present, and that by secret ballot.
7. Newly constituted churches may be admitted into the union who shall petition by letter and messenger, and (if found upon examination to be orthodox and orderly), shall be received by the Association, and manifested by the Moderator giving the right hand of fellowship.
8. Every church in the union shall be entitled to a representation in the Association.

9. Every query presented by any church to the Association, being first debated in their own church, shall be taken up by the Association.

10. Every motion made and seconded shall come under the consideration of the Association, except it shall be withdrawn by the member who made it.

11. The Association shall endeavor to furnish the churches with Minutes of the Association, the best way and method for effecting that purpose shall be at the discretion of future Associations.

12. We think it absolutely necessary that we have an Association fund for defraying the expenses of the same, for the raising and supporting of which we think it the duty of each church in the union to contribute such sums voluntarily as they think proper, and send it by the hands of their messengers to the Association, and those monies thus contributed by the churches and received by the Association shall be deposited in the hands of the Treasurer, who shall be accountable to the Association for all monies received by him, and pay out of the same according to the Association.

13. There shall be an Association book kept, wherein the proceedings of every Association shall be regularly recorded by the Secretary chosen for that purpose, who shall receive compensation for his trouble.

14. The Minutes of the Association shall be read and corrected, if need be, and signed by the Moderator and Clerk before the Association arises.

15. Amendments to this plan or form of government may be made at any time by majority of the union when they deem it necessary.

16. The Association shall have power: (1) To provide for the general union of the churches. (2) To preserve inviolably a chain of communication among the churches. (3) To give the churches necessary advice in matters of church difficulty. (4) To inquire into the cause why the churches fail to represent themselves at any time in the Association. (5) To appropriate those monies by the churches contributed for an Association fund to any purpose they may think proper. (6) To appoint any member or members by and with their consent to transact any business they may see necessary. (7) The Association shall have power to withdraw from any church in this union which shall violate the rules of the Association, or deviate from the orthodox principles of religion. (8) To admit any orderly minister of our faith and order to seat in the Association. (9) The Association shall have power to adjourn themselves to any time or place they may think most convenient to the churches of the Association.

17. We welcome any and all orderly and peace-loving Primitive Baptist to visit with us.

ARTICLES OF FAITH

1. We believe in one true living God, who is the Creator, upholder and righteous disposer of all things; and that He is self-existent, independent, omnipotent and eternal.

2. We believe that Jesus existed in His mediatorial Person as the head and life of His body, the church from everlasting.

3. We believe in the doctrine of eternal, personal and unconditional election ; that the elect, or church, is and was and shall forever remain His body and fullness, and their spiritual life is hid with Christ in God.

4. We believe in the doctrine of total depravity of human nature, and that recovery from that condition is wholly and exclusively by the sovereign, free and unmerited grace of God.

5. We believe the atonement made by Christ was full and complete and exclusively for the elect, or heirs of promise.

6. We believe the doctrine of God's predestination in every sense as the Bible teaches it.

7. We believe that all the elect vessels of mercy, chosen in Christ before the foundation of the world, shall be called, regenerated and sanctified by the regenerating power of God's grace, and shall ultimately enjoy heaven and immortal glory.

8. We believe that there will be a resurrection of the bodies, both of the just and the unjust, and the happiness of the righteous shall be eternal, and the punishment of the wicked shall be everlasting.

9. We believe that baptism and the Lord's Supper are ordinances of Jesus Christ, and that true believers are the subjects, and the true mode of baptism is immersion, foot washing as an example.

10. We believe the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments as translated under the reign of King James, are a revelation from God, inspired by the Holy Ghost, and that the New Testament is the standard of faith and the only authorized rule of practice to the church of God under gospel dispensation. We therefore consider ourselves solemnly bound by our allegiance to the King of Zion to reject, disclaim and dis-fellowship all modern and ancient religions institutions or societies of which we have neither precept nor example in the New Testament.

RULES OF DECORUM

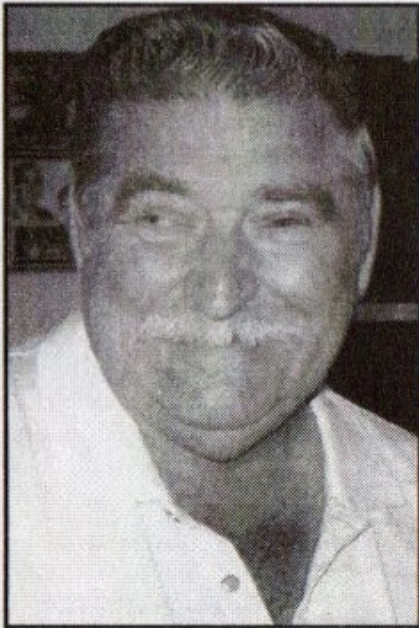

1. The Association shall be opened and closed by prayer.
2. The Association shall have a Moderator, Assistant Moderator, Clerk and Assistant Clerk, who shall be chosen by the suffrage of the messengers present, and that by secret ballot.
3. Only one member shall speak at a time, who shall rise from his seat and address the Moderator when he is about to speak.
4. The person speaking shall not be interrupted by any except the Moderator until he is done speaking.
5. He shall strictly adhere to the subject, and in no wise reflect on the person who spoke before so as to make remarks on his slips, failings and imperfections, but fairly state the case and matter as he can to convey his ideas.
6. No person shall rise and speak more than three times on one subject without liberty obtained from the Association.
7. No person shall abruptly break off or absent himself from the Association without liberty obtained from it.
8. No member of the Association shall have liberty of laughing during the sitting of the Association, nor whispering in time of public speech.
9. No member of the Association shall address another in any other term or appellation but the title of "Brother".
10. The Moderator shall not interrupt any member in a speech or prohibit him from speaking until he give his light on the subject, except they break the Rules of Decorum.

Paul Blake Goff

Paul Blake Goff was born Wednesday, March 12, 1947, to Blake and Flora Goff of Racoon, Kentucky. Paul passed on Thursday, October 19, 2021 at his sister's home. He was preceded in death by four brothers: Elmer, Carnes, Johnny and Vernon Goff; two sisters: Deloris Goff and Brenda May. Paul is survived by one sister, Coleen Bevins of Racoon, who cared for him in his last years.

Paul was a Deacon of Grapevine Primitive Baptist Church, a U.S. Army veteran, member of DAV Johns Creek chapter 166, and a retiree from the Pike County Solid Waste Department. Paul was loved by all his family and friends, and by his Church family.

Funeral services were held at Community Funeral Home, Pikeville, Kentucky; visitation Thursday night October 21, funeral services Friday, October 22. Elder Timothy Slone and other Primitive Baptist elders conducted services. Family members served as pall bearers, burial was at the family cemetery on 58 Branch, Racoon, Kentucky.

Ray Lovely

With so much sadness I try to write this obituary of Ray Lovely. Ray passed away peacefully on August 20, 2022 at the age of 90. Born January 21, 1932, he was the son of the late Rueben and Lula Lovely. In addition to his parents, Ray was preceded in death by his first wife Bea, daughter Martha Lovely, granddaughter Terri Tuhro, and sisters Eunice Lovely and Eula Taulbee.

In addition to his wife Ruby Lovely, Ray is survived by son, James Lovely (Teresa); daughter Betty (Carl) James; step-children: Timothy Kincaid, Charles Kincaid and Rita Paxton; grandchildren: Jimmy Nicholas, Samantha (Paul) and Sephanie; great-grandchildren: Kaylee Kincaid, Brittini St. Germain, Brendan Paxton, Aimee Kincaid, and many nieces and nephews.

Ray had many jobs, but his longest most-loved job was driving long haul trucking all across the country, which he did for over 30 years. He was also a Deacon at Columbus Primitive Baptist Church.

Ray loved taking his grandchildren fishing, playing horse shoes, and working puzzle books. He also liked care races in his early years. He loved his home-cooked meals. He is and will be missed by his family and church family, but most of all by his wife Ruby Lovely. I know you are smiling down at us. Time is like a fleeting shadow: I hope and pray to be united with you and all our loved ones some day. Love you and miss you.

Your loving wife, Ruby Lovely.

Gregory Scott Blackburn

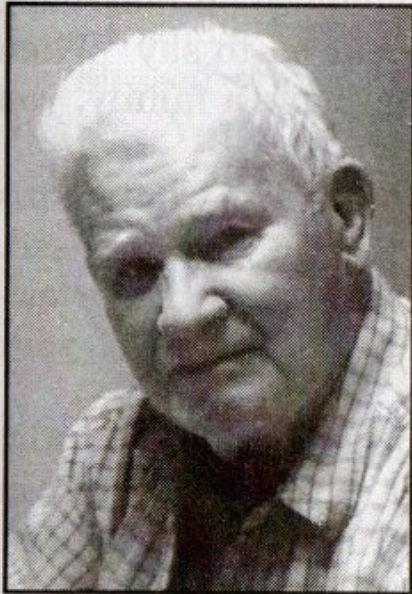

At the age of 63, Brother Gregory Scott Blackburn, of Linden, Michigan, went to sleep in Jesus on April 22, 2022. Born February 3, 1959, in Flint Michigan, he was a truck driver, carpenter and laborer for many years. Greg loved cars: classic cars, race cars and Nascar.

Surviving are: his wife Cheryl; three children: Jeffery Blackburn, Sara (Jamie) Hetchler, and Charles "CJ" Blackburn; adopted daughter, Kori Reynolds; grandchildren: Tyler, Jordan, Zachary and Sophia; mother, Phyllis Hill; siblings: Dawn (Ian) Clark, Melissa (Jim) VanHove, Kurt (Kerri) Hill, Michael (Kathryn) Hill, Steve Hill, and Kathy (Tilden) Bevins; many nieces, nephews and other extended family members. Greg was preceded in death by his father, Charles Blackburn; step-mother Ruth Blackburn; daughter, Charlotte Blackburn Matthews; step-father Jim Hill; grandson Kayn Hetchler, and step-siblings, Janice and Oscar.

Paul Edward Coleman

Paul Edward Coleman passed peacefully at his home on May 10, 2022, surrounded by his family. He was preceded in death by one daughter, Paula Coleman; twelve brothers: Clyde, Carl, Granville, Lundy, William Austin, John Jesse, Perry, Rexall, Russell, Danville, David, Jr., and Steve; seven sisters

Darcus, Avonelle, Emolene, Lucy Pearl, Utha, Ledna Mae and Lois. He is survived by his wife of 60 years, Janice (Lovely) Coleman; two daughters: Alicia (Tom) Burchwell, Teresa (Chris) Spaulding; five grandchildren: Sandra (Kaitlin) McGarry, Cody Burchwell, Shelby (Stephen) Palazzo, Brandon and Nathan Hilles; four great-grandchildren: Alexa and Aleah Palazzo, Mariana McGarry, and Stephen Palazzo; one sister, Ova Thacker, and five sisters-in-law: Betty Jean, Karen, Alice Fay, Maxie and Debbie; and countless nieces, nephews, cousins and friends. Special mention of brother-in-law, Ray Lovely, who was more like a brother to him.

Paul was born in Pikeville, KY, April 1, 1933, the 12th of 21 children, to David W. Coleman and Cora (Maden) Coleman. He went through the 10th grade, and held various jobs in his youth and into adulthood. He worked on the Pike County Board of Education, where he provided maintenance for the school buildings. He came to Columbus in 1951 and lived with his brother Lundy and wife Dorothy. Paul built airplanes for 2½ years for North American Rockwell. Kentucky drew him back home, where he worked hauling rock or digging ditches at Kentucky/West Virginia Gas Company. He said he never liked that job, and it didn't pay either! He moved back to Columbus in 1959 and worked for Westinghouse for 22½ years, while working two or three jobs at one time to provide for his family. He worked at T N Cook, Schottentsteins, Ohio Bell, Bonded Oil Company and Pinkerton Security. He also demo'd garages and houses.

Paul met the love of his life in 1960: His sister-in-law, Betty Lou, worked with Jan at Swan Cleaners, and took her to Lundy and Dorothy's house. Paul offered to drive her home, and Jan said "Only if Dorothy would go with him"; the rest is history. He said he was surprised that she loved "him", and the only thing he would change would be to make her love him more than she already did. They always loved each other and communicated well. If you asked Paul his advice on marriage, he would say "Don't get married!"; then went on to say "When you find the right one, you'll know it. If you have a family, you should be married".

Paul believed you should work hard. He wanted his children and grandchildren to remember how they were raised. His advice to them was to go to church and listen. His priorities were to honor your marriage vows and take care of your kids.

He attended and labored in the Columbus Primitive Baptist Church for many years before he united with the church in April, 2017. He described the baptism as chains breaking loose and being lifted off him.

Paul's favorite hobby was playing cards. He loved any game, and was a tad bit competitive. Paul loved playing with his brothers every weekend and never turned down a game. He loved country music and could be found singing the good ole gospel tunes like "I'll Fly Away" to his wife and grandchildren. Everyone, well, maybe just the ladies, commented on his blue eyes and the finger waves in his hair his entire life. He enjoyed watching Hee Haw, Jeopardy, Wheel of Fortune and Andy Griffith. He would feed the squirrels on his porch, and even in the house when he could lure them in with a peanut or two. He liked watching the peacocks in their front yard. Paul was called Brother by his sisters, and it was told to us that he was a good boy. He had a 1948 Harley Davidson that he rode to Kentucky without his license. He took his cousin for a ride, and she never rode again! His brothers would sneak and ride his bike while he was at work.

Paul enjoyed giving to others. He was instrumental in organizing and getting funding to rebuild the neighborhood park. He started Santa visits at the church, where he, along the help of others, provided the toys and a candy bag for all the children for nearly 30 years. He loved family reunions and was part of restarting them. He added hats and t-shirts, which everyone loved! Anyone who knows Paul also knows how he didn't like chicken, or any other bird, for that matter. He was a meat and potatoes kind of guy.

His life was his family. He truly believed the saying "Having a place to go is home; having someone to love is a family; having both is a true blessing". Paul lived a full life with many friends, touching each of them in a different way. He was blessed with a wonderful family, but really it was our blessing. We will miss his humor, smile, orneriness, memories, and the way he loved everyone.

In Loving Memory
Ricky Lee Ratliff

(February 7, 1965 – June 21, 2022)

It is with a broken heart and joy that I write this tribute. Ricky was the son of Will Drainen Ratliff and the late Nancy Marie (Slone) Ratliff. He had two sisters, Donna Gail (Ratliff) Coleman (Donald); and Rhonda Lynn (Ratliff) Gilman (Dwight). He also leaves five nieces and nephews: Angel (Adkins) Moore (Bobby), Heather (Coleman) Hite (Andrew), Lydia (Taylor) Cunningham (Clyde), Michael Taylor and Donovan Coleman (Madison); seven great-nieces and nephews: Lucas Rowe, Eli Rowe, Noah Moore, Serenity Hite, Luna Hite, Hyperion Hite and Wynter Rose Coleman. Also left behind are many family members and neighbors who loved him and will miss him.

Ricky was preceded in death by his maternal grandparents: Loren Slone and Viola (Varney) Slone; and his paternal grandparents: Kit Carson Ratliff and Velma Mae (Dotson) Ratliff.

Ricky was a member of the Calvary Primitive Baptist Church, Kimper, Kentucky, where he was faithful to attend until such time as he was unable to go. If you were around Ricky for as much as five minutes, he would always praise and speak the name of Jesus. He loved to discuss his dreams and thoughts concerning God. He was never ashamed to give God the praise and honor He so richly deserves. That in and of itself is a powerful testimony of faith. It is with great joy to know that he is now resting in the arms of Jesus. We love and miss our dear son, brother, uncle nephew, cousin and friend.

Mary (Scott) Hunt

On February 14, 2022, Mary (affectionately referred to as "little" Mary by her family) entered into her eternal rest. Mary was born on June 17, 1932, in Pike County, KY to the late Ransom and Martha (Coleman) Scott. She was preceded in death by her husband, Clifford Hunt in 2019. They were blessed with two sons: Clifford Steven (Darla) Hunt of Gallatin, TN and Leslie Mark (Agnes) Hunt of Mt. Juliet, TN. Cliff and Mary were also blessed with five grandchildren: Joshua Hunt, Nathan (Kayla) Hunt, Natalie (Blake) Holmes, Tasha (Chase) Gregory, and Lisa Ibay, as well as four great-grandchildren. She is survived by a sister, Betty Scott of Gallatin, TN; three brothers: Burl Scott, Dave Scott, Jr., and Earl Scott (who died in June 2022); two sisters also preceded her in death: Juanita Bennett and America Reed, as well as four siblings who died in infancy: Charles, Jackie, Ethel and a twin sister, Martha. She was also one of 58 double first cousins, after the marriages of four Scott brothers to four Coleman sisters. A special care giver, Terri Smith, was also an integral part of our mother's life this past year.

Mary was a former member of the Old Pond Primitive Baptist Church, Belfry, KY for many years. While living in Huntington, they attended Cannonsburg PBC in Ashland, KY. Upon moving to Tennessee, she became a member of Bethel Primitive Baptist Church in Goodlettsville, TN. For almost 60 years, she rested in God's sovereignty and the finished work of Jesus Christ. Her entire life was focused on serving others, and always, as she saw the day approaching, was in her kitchen preparing meals for church fellowships and luncheons; and in that regard, she was known for her making of gingerbread, apple stack cakes and delicious fried apple pies. For a short period of time, she worked full time as a cook at Varney Elementary and Belfry High Schools in Pike County, Kentucky. Old Pond Church was a bethel spot in her life for many years, a place where she enjoyed hearing the gospel of her salvation, showing hospitality to her kindred in Christ, and fellowshiping with the saints. Communion services were always special to her, and she so enjoyed preparing the bread for that occasion, until she moved to Tennessee.

Visitation was held on Sunday, February 20, from 1:00 p.m. To 2:00 p.m. at Bethel Primitive Baptist Church, located at 515 Long Hollow Pike, Goodlettsville, TN, 37072. A Celebration of Life Service followed before a large crowd of attendees, as well as a host of family and church friends watching via Live Stream - with Elders Ronald Lawrence and Paul Trautner officiating. Pall bearers included Joshua Hunt, Nathan Hunt, Mike Scott, Neal Scott, Earl Scott and Dave Neighbors. The deacons of the church served as honorary pallbearers. Entombment followed on Monday at the Mausoleum in Sumner Memorial Gardens, Gallatin, TN. While there is certainly sorrow, we rejoice, knowing that "In [His] presence is the fullness of joy; at [His] right hand are pleasures forevermore" (Psalm 16). Mom is happier than she has ever been, face to face with her Lord, with the redeemed.

Submitted by the Family

Martha May

With great sadness and a heavy heart, we announce the passing of Martha May of Phelps, Ky. Martha passed away at the Good Shepherd Nursing Facility May 18, 2022. Martha was born July 31, 1928, at LeeMaster, Va., the daughter of Fannin Boyd and Ethel (Jackson) Boyd. In addition to her parents, Martha is preceded in death by her first husband, Lon Smith, her second husband, Walter May; three sons: Teddy Smith, James May, and Bud May; four brothers, Ernest, Jennings, David and Teddy Wayne; five sisters: Myrtle Wagner, Marie Charles, Catheline Lockhart, Madeline Boyd and Dorothy Hibbits.

Martha was a member of the Primitive Baptist Church at Smith Fork in Phelps, Ky. Her many hobbies included quilting, reading and gardening. She enjoyed bird watching and taking care of her flowers. Most of all, she loved the Lord and all the blessings He bestowed upon her life. Her family and friends she cherished dearly, and she will be missed sorely.

Those left to honor the memory of sister Martha are her children: Jimmy Lee (Ina Ruth) Smith of Phelps, Ky.; Jan (Darrell) Fannin of Phelps, Ky., Lonetta Hunt of Raccoon, Ky., and Nina Gail (Glen) Varney of Canada, Ky. Martha leaves behind a host of grandchildren great-grandchildren, nieces and nephews, and a countless number of friends.

Written by her son, Richard Coleman.

In Loving Memory

Helen Carol Rose

Helen Carol O'Quinn Colley Rose of Haysi, Virginia, passed away at her home surrounded by her family on June 3, 2022. Helen was preceded in death by her parents, Corbet and Peggy O'Quinn; her first husband Jimmy R. Colley; sisters Darlene, Hazel and Dora; brothers Vadie, Harlen, Jerry and Teddy.

Helen leaves behind her husband, Roger Rose, sisters Mazie Wood, Betsy Rasnick, and Kathy Sykes; brothers Jones O'Quinn and Jackie O'Quinn, four children and one step-daughter: Jennifer (George) Wallace of Haysi, VA, Jeff (Susan) Colley of Kingsport, TN, Rick (Tina) Colley of Wise, VA, Teresa (James) Fuller of Bristol, VA, Tammy (Randy) Bylski of Haysi VA, as well as several nieces and nephews.

Helen was blessed with ten grandchildren: Brent (Elizabeth) Wallace of Haysi, VA, Brittney (Matt) Mullins of Richmond, VA, Clay (Tasha) Colley of Kingsport, TN, Jessica (Ryan) Stiltner of Bristol, TN, Brooke Colley of Wise, VA, Hannah (Nathan) Ward of Wise, VA, Nathaniel Fuller of Bristol, VA, Tyler Fuller of Bristol, VA, Joshua DeLashmit of South Lion, MI, Zachary (Meagan) DeLashmit of Flushing MI. Helen was also blessed with seven great-grandchildren: Ben, Addison and Easton Mullins; Abby and Tessa Wallace; Austin DeLashmit, and Oliver DeLashmit.

With our hearts full of love and sadness for the loss of our mother, we want to share the story of her life with our family and friends. Helen was born November 24, 1943, to Corbet and Peggy Conway O'Quinn the sixth of thirteen children, and was raised in three-room log cabin upon a hill at Laurel Branch.

Helen married Jimmy Colley on March 10, 1967, and they made their home in Haysi. After Jimmy's death, Helen married her second husband, Roger Rose of Haysi. Helen and Roger both united with Sandlick Primitive Baptist Church in August, 1985, until moving their membership to Dry Fork Primitive Baptist Church in 2022. Helen loved her family and her forever fur baby, Pollyann. She really enjoyed fishing, especially because she could always seem to catch more and bigger fish than Roger! She also enjoyed reading, gardening, watching the birds at her bird feed, and cooking a big meal for her family!

We are thankful for the years we have had together and the happy memories we have made. We look forward to a reunion in Heaven someday.

Funeral services were conducted at 7:00 p.m. June 6, 2022, with Elders J. C. Hager, Jeremy Jacobs, Jeff Dotson and Shawn Dotson officiating. Graveside services were held June 7, 2022 at 11:00 a.m. at the Rebecca Willis Cemetery, Haysi, Virginia.

Francis Lucille Brown Pendell

Francis Lucille Brown Pendell, age 95, of Bristol, Virginia passed August 13, 2021 after a long illness. She was born in Russell County at Drill, Virginia on May 11, 1926 to the late William Arthur Brown and Martha Annie Nuckels Brown.

She was preceded in death by her loving husband of 26 years James Arthur Pendell formerly from Syracuse, New York.

Also preceding her in death one sister Thelma I. Brown Street and husband Virgil B. Street; six brothers Elder Elmer Brown and first wife Draper Hess Brown; Eddith Garland Brown and wife Doris Whited Brown; Herbert McKinley Brown and wife Pauline Ratliff Brown; Carl Berkley Brown and wife Ellen Brown; Henry Earl Brown; and Emory Ferril Brown; Two nephews Millard Wayne Street and Roger Dale Brown; one great niece Amy Brown.

Survivors include one brother, Richard Nelson Brown and wife Nancy Ann Brown; two sisters-in-law Melster Yates Owens Brown and Lillie Ruth Yates Brown, several nieces, great nieces, nephews and great nephews.

Aunt Lou enjoyed sewing, embroidery, quilting, crocheting and all kinds of needlework. She enjoyed cooking and being a homemaker. She also enjoyed traveling especially to Pigeon Forge with Uncle Art, friends and family members. She was a member of the Volunteer Choir Show and did volunteer work for Hospice and the American Cancer Society.

She loved her family. She looked forward to holidays, family reunions and get-togethers. She always was delighted when listening to her brothers and their children play their instruments and sing bluegrass music.

Aunt Lou had no children of her own, however, she was very proud of all her nieces, nephews and their children as well. She was very attentive to important family events, birthdays, graduations, weddings and new arrivals to the family.

Lucille, Aunt Lou to many, joined the Dry Fork Primitive Baptist Church at Vansant, Virginia and was baptized November 11, 1985 by Elder Teddy Ball and her brother Elder Elmer Brown. She enjoyed going to visit all the churches but loved going to her home church and being with her church family. Some of her favorite songs were Amazing Grace, Beulahland and hearing her brother, Elmer, sing Just One Rose Will Do. If she didn't have the opportunity to go to church she was on the phone calling someone to hear about the service.

She enjoyed services held at the family cemetery-Hess-Nuckels on Fletcher's Ridge in Buchanan County, Virginia in loving memory of her family and friends.

Aunt Lou always talked about the peacefulness and the beauty of the mountains that would be someday her final resting place along side of her beloved husband and family members.

Aunt Lou was loved by many and those who knew her will certainly miss her.
